

PALAMA HAS NO HEAD NURSE AND RATHINQUANDARY

Miss Susan Parrish Changes Mind at Last Minute as to Taking Position

Owing to the refusal of Miss Susan Parrish at the last moment to assume the duties of head-nurse at Palama Settlement, head-worker James A. Rath is in a quandary and while looking around the city for a suitable candidate for the position is awaiting answers to numerous letters and dispatches sent to various mainland cities asking for a nurse to assume entire charge of the five dispensaries and to direct the activities of the eight nurses of the Settlement.

For the past few weeks, negotiations had been going on between the Settlement and Miss Parrish, then head-nurse at Queen's hospital, and arrangements had been effected whereby Miss Parrish was to have assumed work today, but last Sunday the telephone rang and Miss Parrish's voice announced over the wire that she was going to the Coast and would not be able to accept the position.

This meant that the search for a head nurse had to be recommenced with new vigor and letters to New York, Boston, Chicago and San Francisco were dispatched by the Sierra reopening inquiries in regard to finding a head nurse.

"We must have a graduate nurse," said Rath this morning, "but if she has the necessary sympathy with the work, we can give her the Settlement training. The position requires not only a knowledge of nursing but also a knowledge and sympathy with the conditions that we meet every day in our work."

"We have sent to Boston and have also written St. Henry's settlement house in New York and I expect an answer almost any time now. There is a woman in California whose services we may procure; we had written to her before talking the matter over with Miss Parrish and she seemed willing then and it is very likely that she will come now."

The settlement worker expressed a desire to find some one for the position in the city, some graduate nurse who would be willing to assume the responsibility of overseeing five dispensaries and eight nurses. At present, Miss Mattie Strayne is acting as head-nurse.

The navy wireless station failed to pick up either the California or South Dakota Saturday night. It is believed that communication will be established with the Pacific fleet tonight.

FIRMS FILE PETITIONS TO CONFIRM TITLES

Petition to register and confirm the title to the property beginning with the Arlington Hotel, on Hotel street, and extending down Fort street to and including the Boston building, was filed in the Court of Land Registration this morning by C. Brewer & Co., Ltd. The assessed value of the land sought to be registered is $275,000.

The same firm also filed a petition to register and confirm title to property on the northeast side of Fort street, above Hotel street, assessed at $6910.

The Hawaiian Trust Company, Ltd., for the estate of J. G. Hayseiden, filed petition to register and confirm title to the property back of the O. R. & L. Co. roundhouse, on King street. The assessed valuation sought to be registered is $9600.

FIRST PULSEN WIRELESS MESSAGES EXCHANGED

The first transmission of wireless news from the new Poulson equipment here took place last Saturday night when messages were exchanged between the Advertiser and San Francisco. However, the Poulson people are not yet ready to undertake a regular press service, and for some time the cable will be the only reliable method of getting news.

Whether or not the wireless stations here will be able to handle messages across the ocean during the daytime is a question not yet settled, and until this and the reliability of the night-service are determined, little will be known as to the availability of the trans-oceanic wireless for everyday use.

BUSINESS LICENSES OVER NINETY THOUSAND

Andrew E. Cox, license collector of the city and county treasury, figures on business license collections of more than 90,000 this year. He has not collected any fees at the fishmarket yet, as the Board of Health is holding up licenses there pending a judicial decision on the screening regulation. There has been a large increase in the business license money since the collections were transferred from the Territory to the county in 1909.

HOME RULERS

its utmost capacity during the previous conventions of the Home Rule Party, was not crowded this morning when President Notley called for order. There were about 50 staunch Home Rulers present; but they made things move.

With the exception of roll-call and examination of the credentials of the delegates from Maui, Hawaii and Oahu, no important action was taken this morning. During the early part of the convention the aged Home Ruler, who still believe in the monarchial form of government, sang "Kuu Aina Honau E" with vim and enthusiasm. After that D. Kalaokalani, Sr., vice-president of the Home Rule party, offered invocation.

Afternoon Session.
At 2 o'clock this afternoon, important matters will be brought up for discussion. D. Kalaokalani, Sr., who joined the Progressive party, may be asked by some of the delegates to explain his reasons for affiliating himself with a new party.

Notley Silent.
President Notley, when asked this morning about his views as to Kalaokalani's attitude in the matter, said that any man has a perfect right to affiliate with any political party.

"It is the man's prerogative," said the genial Home Rule leader, "to affiliate with a party which he thinks will benefit him politically or otherwise."

Luau.
Late this afternoon the Home Rule delegates were guests of Pres. Notley at an elaborate luau prepared in the mauka room.

This evening, it is expected, a mass meeting of the Home Rule party will be given in Notley Hall.

The delegates present were: J. Annie, W. N. Kauhupaula, S. W. Kamekaha, A. E. Hiwauli, Louis Kamaika, Napoliona Puanani, Jno. Kamaana, Kopa Kaulalana, R. N. Kama-kahukilani, K. N. Opanaku, Jack Kamahe, Jno. Kahalewai, A. W. Paoa, A. M. Meekapu, D. Kaona, Wm. Khaulburn, Jno. Kamanuwai, Jno. A. Baker, G. M. Keona, Robt. Kubulihii, G. Kaulimakaole, Wm. Kaheliele, T. C. Polikapu, David Ahia, K. Paakaula Kamelikanene, D. W. David Haleua, Sam. Kamaieu, Henry Kealoha, John Kaimi, Ikeole, H. P. Malulani, K. Kamaana, Jno. P. Kuoha, Moses Kamaiani.

Party Twelve Years Old.
The Home Rule party was organized in 1900, shortly after the amalgamation of the Ahui Kalalaia and Ahahui Aloha Aina. The late R. W. Wilcox was the first Delegate to Congress. He was the Home Rule candidate who carried victory on election day. Since his death in 1903, Chas. K. Notley has been his successor. It is believed that Notley will receive the nomination in the convention of the Home Rule party this afternoon.

OAHU COLLEGE'S SPLENDID YEAR

the College Hills tract. Last January the balance of the lots were sold to the Trent Trust Company. The statement is from the beginning of 1909, when the trustees voted to convert what was then a cow pasture into residence property. In March, 1901, an auction sale gave the tract a fine send-off.

The college had to put in the water-works and bear the expense of putting the Rapid Transit through, the latter item alone costing $17,557.98. The expense of preparing the property for sale were $70,232.84. Other expenses brought the total up to $94,006.78. Two hundred and thirty-seven lots were sold for $235,290, and small profits on gravel brought the total to $286,158. A net profit on the lots of $192,152.02 is shown, or 67.2 per cent. profit on this real estate investment.

Island investments of the college are given as $473,436.89. Many changes in notes and bonds have been made during the year. Dividends from stocks have made $15,484.56 for the institution, one O. R. & L. stock dividend totaling $10,600. Stocks to the value of $30,817.06 are held, the market value being in reality $102,000, showing what good investments these have been. Total receipts from investments were $41,239.58.

The total endowment account is $432,875, on which 3.5 per cent. profit has been made. The U. S. endowment fund is $1497.31.

A substantial gain on the loss and gain account is due largely, it is stated, to the new buildings donated wholly or in part by friends of the college. The C. M. Cooke family gave the Cooke art gallery, costing $18,560.92. Charles R. Bishop Hall annex, given by friends of the institution, cost $27,905.61.

The new Castle Hall, for which the contract is let, is to cost $32,801, and with architects' fees, $37,781. On hand for this building there is $49,642.59. An amount, it is stated, of $15,000 is to be received from the Castle estate, leaving $25,000 to be provided for from donations.

Treasurer Jones closes the first part of his report with recommendations as to insurance, fire protection, and other matters. The second part of the report is a complete statement in figures of the finances up to date in which every item is clearly shown.

Notwithstanding the fine record made by Punahou, it still is lacking in sufficient room and accommodations for the many pupils who desire to attend. The alumni are now raising $100,000 for a new gymnasium, and Mr. Jones said this morning that $100,000 more is needed for improvements that at present the trustees would like to make but can not.

Maintaining A Standard

There are different makes of clothes on the market, but we know that the BENJAMIN are the best, and that they maintain the standard for high-class clothing. BENJAMIN clothes rank first among them. We never had a single complaint about this make of men's clothes, and when a man once wears a BENJAMIN he becomes a permanent customer.
